

'Connected', 2023

32x47

Acrylic painting

"Connected" portrays a sense of emotional or spiritual connection between people, capturing the depth of human relationships and the shared experiences that bind us together. The painting evokes feelings of togetherness, empathy, and understanding.

The colors are like different people, ethnicities, cultures. It's about respecting and co-existing with each other.